-Meeting Minutes: Motion to Approve – Nada

Motion Seconded- Laura

All in favour

Financial Statement: $10,000.00+

-At a healthy balance no need to fundraise

Principal Report:

- A motion was made last meeting to use profits from Hot lunches to go back into Breakfast Program. We were not approved for a grant
- 2 new students start this week and few more by end of March – 461 students by end of March
- Olympic week – No French Carnival this year. Activities will be set up outside if it's nice tomorrow and if it's not then teachers will take their class out over the next couple days
- -25C with windchill is when there is no recess
- New school boundaries are on the LPSD website – all of Parkview will go to Rendell. Our numbers will likely stay the same maybe a few more
- 6-7 parents to come in on a regular basis helping some students that need some extra help. Any parent interested please contact Mrs. Collins
- Feb. 26 Pink Day – Anti Bullying Day. We had purchased pink wrist bands in the past. Any volunteers contact Mr. Thomas
- Feb 12 – Dare to Care 6:30-9:30pm. Speaker on teenage kids, cyberbullying

Teacher Professional Development Update:

- Damian Cooper spoke on assessments of students
  - 250+ teachers
  - Our school division is on the right track – very reassuring
  - Doing great things with our students!
- Talked about communication between parents and teachers – Great communication!

Marcia – Looking for Ads for yearbook, keeps costs down

Diane motioned to purchase as Ad from Parents as Partners

Danielle seconded

All in favour

Tamara:

Next month is Nutrition month, we did yogurt tubes last year what do we want to do this year

Shannon motioned to purchase yogurt tubes and veggie containers

Heather seconded

All in favour

Question – Nada Beek

“Why do we have student led conferences?”

Answer – Mr. Thomas

“The division allows that as an instructional day so they don’t lose a day off”

Next meeting March 18
