Principals Report

Rendell Park has a new logo- designed by Top Source

Newcomer Tea- over 100 new students, change in climate and clientele with no grade 6's in the building

EAC changes:

-Flag Football - middle school

-No Tournaments - Participation

- Badminton - School based Tournament only

-Triple Ball - modifications required? Maybe more like Smashball (includes a catch, low net, smaller court)

-Cross Country Skiing - Stays Same - Loppet at the end Cross Country Running - stays same

-Soccer - 1 game and 1 practice per week

Sheldon encourages parent feedback regarding the changes.

TV time during lunch- discussion about parent concern of kids watching movies/tv on the smart board while they eat lunch. Parent thoughts/feedback is welcome, contact Sheldon.

Two term reporting- School division is looking at moving to a two term reporting period. Parent thoughts/feedback email Sheldon (sheldon.gallagher@lpsd.ca)

Meeting Notes

Turkey Bingo was a success! Had a great turnout. Profit was $726.18

Educational programming will continue as it is but increase amount from $100 to $125 Increased motioned by Rececca Haftner, seconded by Erin Tobin, all in favor.

RCMP Talk- will pick a day in the spring

School Dance- picked a date: November 6, 2024. Doors open at 5:45, dance 6-7.

Cart Away Hunger- Nov 18-30. Erin will pick up grocery carts on the 18th.

Locking cabinets have arrived. Maintenance will be securing them to the wall in the kitchen on the stage for SCC storage.

SCC has paid off the remainder of the LPSD playground loan.

Hot lunch has been going great. Thank you to the parents who help deliver lunches.

Hoping to introduce the option of Google meet for the November meeting
